Life can be overwhelming, and young people can experience depression, anxiety, and thoughts of suicide too.

Connect
Positive personal connections reduce the impact of risk factors for suicide

Communicate
Compassionate communication reduces feelings of isolation and desperation

Care
Timely, appropriate, and comprehensive care is the pathway to sustainable, long-term recovery

#GeorgiaPreventsSuicide